- Rani Osano, Gr 8, has been selected to represent Western Province in the swimming competitions that will be held in Pretoria in December 2014.
- Alice Schmidt, Gr 8, will be representing South Africa at a Gymnastics competition at Walvis Bay, Namibia, at the beginning of December.
- Allison Morton, Gr 9, secured her second consecutive stage victory of the weekend, claiming the overall short route title in an impressive combined time of 05 hours 40 seconds. "It was really nice riding with my dad today," said Morton. "I loved the single track. The vibe at the Pennypinchers Origin Of Trails is great, while the people are really helpful. I will definitely be back next year".

- The Westerford 3rd Boys' Waterpolo team played a match against Rondebosch Boys' High School about 4 weeks ago. The match was very evenly matched and ran neck and neck the whole way through. They were tied 4 -4 towards the end of the last chukka and then in the last minute of the game, Rondebosch scored the winning goal taking the score to 5 – 4. A very exciting game. From Left to right are Kyle Ryan, Justin Panagos and Thomas Milligan.

- Katherine Hartzberg-Aeroe, Gr 10 has just received her results for her modern dance exam (Intermediate Three – the final exam). She was awarded Distinction + (category 95% and over).
